To

The Accountant General

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Mr. W.S. Carlyon, Port Officer, Mangalore, who was appointed to act as Port Officer, Negapatam, vice Mr. James as per Gazette Notification 65, Marine, dated 18 September 1894, gave over charge of his office on the afternoon of the 8th October 1894. He would have proceeded direct to Negapatam to relieve Mr. James, but owing to the exigencies of the service and in the interests of Government he was ordered direct to Suberin for special duty in connection with the dredger "Wenlock", which had to be taken to Bombay for being docked. As it was in the interest of Government service that he was prevented from proceeding to Negapatam direct to relieve Mr. James, Mr. Carlyon's tenure of his appointment as acting Port Officer, Negapatam, should be held to have commenced from the afternoon of the 23rd October 1894, the date on which Mr. Weeks, Port Officer, Coconada, gave over charge of office and

Government of Madras.

Sir

With reference to your letter No 1246 M dated the 26th November 1894, I have the honor to point out that under Article 98(a), Civil Service Regulations, the sanction of the Local Government is necessary to the deputation of Mr. W. S. Carlyon on special duty, from 9th October 1894 and to his drawing Rs 300/- per mensem, the pay of his acting appointment as Port Officer, Regapatam, during the period of his deputation. He will be entitled to the personal allowance of Rs 160 per mensem attached to that Post only, from the date of joining

From Commander W. S. Powell R.I.M.
The PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICER,

MADRAS,

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Government, that in accord-ance with para 2 of G.O. No 368, Marine, dated 14th September 1894, Mr. Carlyon, Port Officer, Mangalore, who was gazetted to act at Rega-patam vice Mr. James in the arrangement of Mr. G. W. Wicks on furlough, was ordered to pro-ceed to Tuticorin direct to take charge of the "Wenlock", in view to her being navigated to Bombay for being docked. He gave over charge of his office on the afternoon of the 8th October 1894, proceeded to Tuticorin, and took charge of the Dredger on the 15th October 1894.

2. From the enclosed copies of correspondence it will be observed, that the sanction of Go-vernment is required by the Accountant General for the deputation of Mr. Carlyon on duty connected with the Dredger "Wenlock".

I beg that sanction to this effect may be

3. As regards the personal allowance of
- Rs 160 per mensem attached to the Post of Negapatam and to which Mr. Carlyon is entitled by virtue of his being gazetted to act at that port, I beg to recommend that the sanction of Government may be accorded under articles 64 and 67, Civil Service Regulations, to Mr. Carlyon drawing the allowance in question for the period of his deputation from the 24 October, the date on which Mr. Wicks was relieved in Coconada, as he was prevented from proceeding direct to Negapatam to assume charge of his acting appointment owing to the exigencies of the to service, and in the interests of Government.
2. The personal allowance in question is not
