For Orders

The Chairman of the Porto Conservancy Bd, Cocanada, (~~who is also the acting Collector~~) states that in consequence of the ever increasing trade at that port many intricate questions affecting alike the Railway, the Marine & the Customs Dept, are continually cropping up involving lengthy correspondence. Such questions he thinks might be simplified and time saved if the Railway Dept ~~was~~ represented on the Godavari Dist. Porto Conservancy Board, and he therefore recommends that an additional member be elected from the officials of the Railway Dept by the Engineer in Chief of the East Coast Railway.

The Bd as constituted under G.O. 196 d/21/5/90 consists of the Collector as Chairman, the Chairman of the European Chamber of Commerce as

FROM

V. A. Brodie Esq.

Ag COLLECTOR, & Chairman of the

Godavari District, Porto Encomenda

Board, Loanada.

TO

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, Marine Department,
Madras.

SIR,

The railway, the marine and the Customs Departments are mutually interested in many questions arising at this port on account of its ever increasing trade. Such questions of an intricate nature often arise involving lengthy correspondence. They could be much more easily ~~be~~ settled and business expedited if the Railway Department is also represented on the Godavari District Porto Encomenda
Board. I have, therefore, the honor to request that the Government will be pleased to accord sanction for the increase of the strength of the Board the appointment of an officer of that Department to be hereafter named by Engineer in Chief of the East Coast Railway.
There has been no change in its constitution since its formation in 1870.
