Sir,

In continuation of my letter N^o 12/1 dated 22nd July 1895 regarding the erosion by the sea at this port I have the honor to inform you that since I last wrote many more houses have fallen down and the sea is now within 8 yards of the flagstaff and that unless some immediate steps are taken, I fear the flagstaff will soon be washed away.

to be so bad as this year. I have received no complaints from merchants or others though from what I have seen myself they must have suffered severely and they are now all busy protecting their property with piles and sand bags.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that during the last few days the sea has encroached very considerably all round the beach in front of the town and great damage has been done and much valuable property destroyed, in some places the fore shore to the extent of 70 to 80 feet inland has gone to sea and where there was a large sandy beach is now deep water. One of the Customs sheds has fallen down and the sea is now within 20 yards of the flagstaff. From what information I can gather I am given to understand that encroachment by the sea generally takes place at this time of the
