4. I beg that the order of the Government of India may be obtained on the following points:-

(1) Whether the instructions of the Government of India contained in their letter dated 20th April 1891 that the Acting allowance of the Royal Indian Marine Officers referred to are to be regulated by the rulings applicable to the Military Officers in civil employ, should not be held to have been superseded by para 65 of the Indian Marine Regulations,
Vol I, Part II, 2^d Edition (published in 1894) which regulates their Acting allowances.

(2) Whether Commander Jewell is not entitled to Acting allowance

3. Commander C. W. Hewett, R. I. M., Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras, who acted as Presidency Port Officer in October 1894 during my absence on privilege leave lately, claimed acting allowance under para 65, of the 2^d Edition of the Marine Regulations for the whole period of my leave (i.e.) 60 days, and pointed out, that as his case is governed by the Indian Marine Regulations, he is not subject to the loss of the acting allowance for the first 30 days of the leave as there is no requirement in these regulations to that effect. The Accountant General disallowed the acting allowance for the first 30 days as per Government of India order of 1891 above referred to—vide copy of his objection memo enclosed.

at that time in the Marine Regulations regulating such salaries, decided in their letter No. 1626, dated 20th April 1891, (Copy enclosed) that, as per clause 2, para 1059, of those Regulations, 1st Edition, the salary of the officer referred to should be regulated by the rules in the Acting Allowance Code and that Chapter VI, section II of the Civil Service Regulations applying to Military officers should be held to apply to the case of Commander Simpson and similar officers.

2. In the 2^d Edition of the Indian Marine Regulations published on the 15th September 1894, and which is held to have superseded the 1st Edition, as per Government of India Marine Circular No. 8, dated 15th September 1894, the salaries of the officers referred to are regulated by para 65, a new ruling in the 2^d Edition not contained in the first.

Commander Hewett's Supplemental salary bill for Rs 564-2-8 has been passed for Rs 288-5-0, the difference, viz, Rs 276-13-8 being disallowed as he is not entitled to acting allowance for the first 30 days of his acting appointment under Article 120 Civil Service Regulations. It is observed that under the Government of India letter No 1626 Finance and Commerce Department, dated 20 April 1891, the salaries of Marine Officers, holding substantively shore appointments carrying staff salaries, and acting in other similar appointments, should be regulated by Chapter VI, Section (ii) C.
