To

The Honble Mr. P. F. Price Esq.

Chief Secretary to Government,

Marine Department.

SIR,

Through The Presidency Pat. office

I have the honor to submit, for the favourable consideration of Government, a letter from Messrs.
Arbutnot & Co. dated 16th August applying for a refund of Port dues paid by them on behalf of the Master of the ship "Harat," to enable him to land a sick seaman.

2. This application was considered by the Board at its last meeting, and as Conservator of the Port, it was unanimously considered that, under the circumstances the port dues paid should be refunded, as the ship while off Madras lay outside of port limits and neither landed nor shipped passengers or or cargo, having called here only for orders, on receipt of which she sailed for Calcutta

Thanking her for the
Sir

Your obedient servant
