MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 18th October 1895.

To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ever ending with your telegram 10596, of the 3rd October 1895, I am directed to state, for the information of this Hon. the Governor in Council, that the programme of the Marine Survey Department having been settled, the Government of India are unable to provide for the Survey of the Mangalore harbour during the season 1895/96, but that the subject will again be considered when the Survey programme for 1896/97 is being dealt with; unless, in the meantime, the Port Officer at Madras has
