PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICER,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, MARINE DEPARTMENT,
Fort Saint George,
Chennai.

SIR,

With reference to para 3 of my letter No. 1740
343 G. dated 17 December 1895, it is probable Mr. Baker may have to avail himself of the three months' privilege leave that is now to his credit. In that case, in view of important matters at Tuticorin in connection with the New Pier, Reclamation Scheme etc., a more experienced officer than the Reserve Port Officer should be in charge of the port.
