DEPARTMENT. G.O., DATED 4 Feb. '95 No. 45
--

SIR,

With reference to G.O. Marine etc.
25, dated 18th January 1895, I have the honour to report as follows: -

2. Under the recent ruling of Government that Masters of vessels must make their own arrangements for sending in arrival Reports it seemed probable that the Agents of the different lines of steamers would avail themselves of the long interval, viz, 24 hours, allowed by the Act, and instead of the reports being received by the deputy Conservator on arrival of the vessel as formerly, when a copy was at once sent to the Deputy Commissioner of Police, they would be detained and submitted
