GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue), dated 18th January 1895, Mis. No. 232.

Read—the following letter from the Collector of South Canara, dated 11th January 1895, Reference on Current No. 76-Eng. of 1895 :—

I have the honour to request that the Board will be pleased to move Government to alter the name of the port of Barkuru from "Barkuru or Hangarakatta" (the name adopted under the notifications of Government issued under section 11 of the Sea Customs Act VIII of 1878) to Hangarakatta.

2. The port has always been locally known by the latter name although it is also called "Barkuru" after an ancient town three miles off, now in ruins, where a taluk kacheri was formerly located.

3. The postal authorities propose to open a combined telegraph and postal office at Hangarakatta. In order to ensure the correct and speedy delivery of messages they desire that the place should be known by its right name—vide the enclosed copy of a letter from the Superintendent of Post offices, Shimoga division.

Resolution—dated 18th January 1895, Mis. No. 232.

In the circumstances stated in the Collector's letter, the following draft notification is submitted to Government for approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

In modification of the notifications published under section 11, clauses (a) and (b) of the Sea Customs Act VIII of 1878, on pages 821–829 of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 11th December 1883, and under clause (c) of the same section, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to alter the name of the port of "Barkur or Hungarakotta" in the South Canara district to "Hungarakatta."
