ENCLOSURES.

Despatch from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, etc.—Marine Department), to the Right Honourable Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Calcutta, the 18th December 1895, No. 357.

We have the honour to forward a copy of the Proceedings of the Government of Madras, Nos. 225 and 226, dated the 30th July 1895, regarding the grant of an increase of pay to the Harbour Masters, Madras.

2. The sanctioned pay of the three Harbour Masters of the port of Madras is Rs. 400 a month in the case of the senior, and Rs. 300 a month in the case of the two junior Harbour Masters. They receive in addition the local allowances of Rs. 50 a month each sanctioned for present incumbents only in paragraph 2 of Lord Cross' Despatch No. 40 (Statistics), dated the 30th April 1890. On a representation from the Harbour Trust Board as to the inadequacy of this rate of remuneration and on the recommendation of the Presidency Port Officer, the Government of Madras sanctioned, with effect from 1st July 1895, an increase of Rs. 100 a month to the pay of each of the three Harbour Masters, the local allowances of the present incumbents being absorbed in the increase. The financial effect of the change is an immediate increase of expenditure on account of the Harbour Masters of Rs. 150 a month and an ultimate maximum additional expenditure of Rs. 300 a month.

3. We have pointed out to the Government of Madras that the increased rates of pay should not have been introduced without your Lordship's sanction. We concur, however, in thinking that the necessity for the increase of pay has been established, and recommend that the proceedings of the Local Government may be confirmed.

We have the honour to be,
My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants,
