The Machinery cannot be satisfactorily examined except in the Presidency Workshops. This means extinguishing the light for an indefinite period. This was done once before, and the P.P.O. is anxious to extinguish the light again. New Machinery thus becomes essential. Having got the new machinery, the old should not be thrown aside without a further local examination. This is the object of Para 2 of the draft order.

From Commander H.A. Street, R.I.M.
THE PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICER, MADRAS,

To
THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT, MARINE DEPARTMENT,
Chepauk
FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,
I forward herewith an indent, for transmission to the India Office, for two Rotatory Machines required for use at Armaghon and Takalapudi respectively, as the machine now in use at each of these places is reported to be defective from wear and tear, having been in constant use for nearly 30 years.

These machines were originally supplied by Messrs. Chance Brothers of Birmingham, and the No. of each Machine and the date of its supply is given in the indent, so that Messrs. Chance Brothers may have no difficulty in supplying the duplicate duplicate required in each case.

I have the honor to be
