He was brought by the Police shortly after the arrest to the Shed, and in the presence of Head Night Watchman Isabrah, and the Shed Watchman Pulliah, shewed them the bag from which he had stolen the skins found in his possession. The bag was identified this morning by Mr Lee as forming the consignment landed from the S. S. "Herbelle" and the mark M H D; the stitching of the bag appeared to have been tampered with.

He was tried this day by the 2nd Magistrate, Town Police Court, and was sentenced to three months rigorous imprisonment having admitted the theft. The stolen skins as well the bag from which they were extracted was taken charge of by the Police, and again returned on the conviction of the offender. The 5 skins were valued at Rs. 2-8-.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit for the information of Government copy of a report regarding a theft of salted goat skins by the Boor's Masalchee, Puckey, on the night of the 28th November.

2. This man is a Government servant, transferred to the Trust, and has 20½ years pensionable service. I have dismissed him from the date of the offence.

3. Petty thefts from the Boor's premises have been very frequent, and I would observe that this man who has now been convicted and and sentenced to three months rigorous imprisonment, would have ample opportunity, from the nature of his night duties, for committing such thefts, as when trimming the lamps during the night the watchmen would not suspect so old a Government servant.

I have the honor to be
