Heading.

PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICE,

Madras, 4th May 1896.

From

Commander H. A. Street, R. N. M.,

PRESIDENCY PORT OFFICER,

Madras,

To

THE ~~CHIEF~~ SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

Fort Saint George.

Chieftain

SIR,

owing to the number of coast port officers on leave on medical certificate this year, I am unable to submit the name of any officer of the port department to act for Mr. H. D. Baddley, Agent for Government Consignments and Personal Assistant to the Presidency Port Officer, who was granted leave to England last month, and as I am put to considerable inconvenience by the post being unfilled, I beg that, as a special case, I may be permitted to select, from the list of office, of candidates, one who would be willing at once to accept the acting post during the absence of Mr. Baddeley, and to appoint him without waiting as usual for the approval of H.E. the Governor, as the candidate in question might not be otherwise within reasonable distance of Madras or able to throw up his present employment on being appointed in the usual manner.

The pay admissible to such a person would be 50% of Mr. Baddeley's salary or Rs 250 (two hundred and fifty) per month, which sum is available.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your obedt. servant,
H. Atteet
Commander, R. I. M., Presidency Fort Officer.

I cannot understand the reasoning in the letter.
Why can he not have information as to the list of candidates + whether it is of sufficient number has been seen + with the list he is in doing.

W Candidates for appointments of this kind are usually aloof and may not owing to the frequent changes to which they are liable, always be of the same mind. The P.P.O. has thus to search far + wide, and he ought to be able to convey a distinct assurance of employment when making an offer, time being moreover of consequence.
If he gets the authority asked for he is more likely to obtain a man of early date. P. P. O.
