General n^o. 1350 d/7 May 1896

Sir, I am directed to forward a memorial from Mr. J. P.
James, Port officer, Negapatam in which he prays that certain periods of his service be allowed to count towards pension and furlough, and that interruptions in such service be condoned.

2. Mr. James was originally engaged in 1879 to Command the Steamer "Prince", which was employed on Military Service in the Godavari river; his engagement being by the month and terminable on 15 days' notice. He assumed Charge of his duties on the 28th July 1879. On the 1st July 1880, he was placed in Charge of the other vessels forming the Godavari flotilla, and held Command till the 15th February 1881. He was finally discharged in August of that year; the nature of his employment in the interval ^{ascertainable from the records} not being specified. He subsequently held several Acting Appointments, for short periods, in the Marine Dept., until the 29th April 1884, when he was appointed permanent

3. With reference to Article 99 (b) of the C.S. Regulations, I am to say that, although Mr. James is still in the public service, his main is transmitted, as his position in the Seniority list and the amount of furlough for which he is eligible depend on the decision which may be arrived at on the requests made.

4. I am to add that this Govt. has no recommendation to make on Mr. James' behalf.
