Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with G.O. Marine, No. 334 dated 13th May 1896, I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Government, that I am unable to obtain the services of any person unconnected with the Government Service for the Acting Appointment in question, and as Commander Aves, R.I.M., the Acting Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras, is willing to perform Mr Baddeley's duties in addition to his own, provided he is remunerated for so doing, and the Harbour Trustees have no objection to his performing these additional duties, I beg that he may be appointed to act as Agent for Govt. Consignments and Personal Assistant to the Presidency Port Officer, in addition to his own duties, and that he may be permitted, on public grounds, under Rule 1 to Proviso of Article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations, to draw, in addition to his own salary as Deputy Conservator, 50 % of Mr Baddeley's salary, or Rs250 (two
