To The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Marine Department

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter R. 1321 dated 14 August 1896 in regard to travelling allowance fees for the survey of vessels at the Port of Madras, and to state in reply that this practice at this this port is as follows. Boat hire charges when minned by the Surveyor on account of emigration and other surveys are met by him from the survey fee which he is permitted to retain in such cases. In other cases where the survey fees are credited to Government, the Port Boat is placed at the disposal of the Surveyor, or where a Port Boat is not provided a private boat is hired and charged to Government.
