Endd. by the Accountant General, Madras } (.. 2798 of 7 Sept. 1896)
No. 659 dated 28 Sept 1896

As Mr. Seely has actually, His Excellency the Governor in Council sancit would appear, done the double duties at Vizag & Brim, he has twice a charge allowance for the period all. But, so far of Rs 60 per mensem to as the S. C. dept. is concerned, the Mr. Seely for period during arrangement seems to be most which he performs the undesirable one, in the absence of duties of Port officer and unfor, which should be called for in Customs Collector, Brimili-the R. S., as I have the S. C. duties patam in addition to at Brim - have been provided for his own duties at Vizagapatam; the proviso under Article 184 of the C. S. Regulations being dispensed with. The arrangement is necessary on public grounds, there being no other qualified officers who can conveniently be spared for the charge, and Mr. Seely's salary,
