ABSTRACT.—Directing that G.O., No. 2311, of 11th December 1880, on the subject of employes being allowed long terms of leave without pay to enable them to do duty in other departments, be reprinted and distributed to heads of departments for information and guidance.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Mis. No. 1979, dated 30th April 1896.

Read—letter from C. H. MOUNSEY, Esq., Acting Collector of Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, dated 29th March 1896, Ref. on C. Petn. Nos. 273 and 454.

Resolution—Mis. No. 1979, dated 30th April 1896.

In his letter read above the Collector of Anantapur states that he has permitted a Clerk and a Revenue Inspector in his district to take up appointments as Police Inspectors on probation for two years and enquires whether these individuals may be allowed to retain a lien on their substantive appointments until confirmed in the Police department.

2. A similar concession has been allowed by the Board in other cases and there is no objection to the same rule being extended to the appointments now under discussion. The grant of leave on loss of pay for long periods for such purposes is forbidden by Standing Order, No. 261 (old edition), but the Board has no objection to the individuals in question being allowed a lien on their permanent appointments for their two years' probation in the Police department and to their being shown in the list as "on other duty."

3. The standing order was based upon G.O., No. 1516, dated 4th September 1871, in which the Government directed that men might be allowed to act in posts carrying higher pay for temporary duty retaining a lien on their substantive appointments for a period of not more than three months. This order has been interpreted in Board's Proceedings, No. 224, dated 18th May 1892, as merely prohibiting the grant of leave to individuals who wish to try their chances in other departments, thereby making a convenience of their own appointments; but on reconsideration the Board doubts whether the orders can be read in this sense. The Government in 1871 objected to an arrangement whereby a gumastah in the Abkari department was to be enabled to serve on probation as Police Inspector while retaining a lien on his permanent appointment, and the case of this individual is practically on all fours with those now reported.

4. The matter will therefore be reported for the orders of Government. Applications of this nature are of not unfrequent occurrence, and the Board considers that they should ordinarily be granted. The period of probation in the Police department being two years, a Government servant who wishes to improve his official position by entering that department would otherwise be obliged to forfeit his permanent appointment, and it is obvious that few men would be found to accept a probationary appointment on such conditions. In the Board's opinion, a Government servant who takes up an appointment in another department must be permitted to retain a lien on his permanent post until the close of the probationary period in the new appointment as determined by the head of that department.
