whether, as proposed by the Presidency Port officer in his letter of the 10th Sept^r/96, a new residence should be designed for the Port officer at Tellicherry, seeing that, as pointed out by Mr Larmine in his letter recorded with G.O. No. 300 Marine of 2nd May/96, the present house, which is on Govt. land, can always be rented for Rs 50 per month. So long as this is the case there seems no necessity for Government to build.

2. It is not usual for Government to construct residences in places where houses can be rented.
