Read the following:—

Letter from the Chairman H.B., Madras, No 3990 dated 21 January 1896.

FOR ORDERS.

The rates seem all right—as far as I can judge—but as they will affect all traders in Madras, it seems to me that they should first be referred to the C. of Commerce, & the Traders Association, or we may be inundated with protests afterwards, some of
wh. may be valid, and it w^d. be inconvenient to have to issue a fresh notification.

Whether the revised scale of rates may be—sanctioned and published in the manner prescribed by law.

2. The reasons for the proposed changes are fully explained in the Chairman's letter.
