Informing the Accountant-General that the rule regarding the 'retention of three months' — by officers appointed on probation to other posts does not apply to officers holding on probation higher appointments in the same office or department.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers :—

G.Os., Nos. 382 and 546, Financial, dated 18th June and 7th September 1896, respectively.

READ—also the following paper :—

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 27th October 1896, No. 3297.

I have the honour to submit the following case for orders. A clerk in the District Munsif's Court, Bapatla, Kistna district, was appointed to a higher post in the same Court on probation for six months. On my pointing out that it was contrary to the instructions laid down in G.O., No. 382, Financial, dated 18th June 1896, to allow a man to retain a lien on his substantive appointment for more than three months, the District Judge contends that the order applies only to those employed in one department seeking employment in another department and not to cases where men are appointed in the same department in which they are serving.

2. G.O., No. 1516, dated 4th September 1871, refers to cases of men on probation in other departments, but as I am in doubt whether, in its order, No. 382, Financial, dated 18th June 1896, Government intended the same distinctions to be observed, I beg to solicit orders on the points.

ORDER—No. 768, Financial, dated 13th November 1896.

The Accountant-General will be informed that the ruling in question does not apply to officers appointed on probation to higher posts in the same office or department.
