GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Fort William, the 8th December 1896.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
MARINE DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In continuation of Marine Department letter No. 796, dated the 9th September 1896, informing you that a reference had been made to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India on the subject of your letter No. 231, dated the 2nd August 1895, recommending that the benefits of the more favourable leave rules contained in Chapter XIII of the Civil Service Regulations might be extended to the gazetted officers (Port Officers and Agent for Government Consignments) serving in the Marine Department of the Madras Presidency, I am now directed to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that having regard to the principles underlying the extension to the several special departments of the Government of India of these leave rules, the Government of India were unable to support, and the Secretary of State has been unable to sanction, His Excellency's recommendation in this instance.

I am,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Secretary to the Government of India.
