ORDER—No. 200, Public, dated 8th February 1896.

A case having recently occurred in which a Government servant accepted a payment of a sum of money from his juniors as an inducement to retire from the service, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs the attention of all Government servants to the provisions of the statute law relating to this subject, which are as follows :—

Section III, 49 George III, c. 126.

“ III. And be it further declared and enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall sell or bargain for the sale of, or receive, have or take any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward, or profit, directly or indirectly, or any promise, agreement, covenant, contract, bond, or assurance, or shall by any way, device, or means contract or agree to receive or have any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, directly or indirectly, and also if any person or persons shall purchase or bargain for the purchase of, or give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, or make or enter into any promise, agreement, covenant, contract, bond, or assurance to give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, or shall by any way, means, or device contract or agree to give or pay any money, fee, gratuity, loan of money, reward or profit, directly or indirectly, for any office, commission, place or employment specified or described in the said recited Act or this Act, or within the true intent or meaning of the said Act or this Act, or for any deputation thereto, or for any part, parcel, or participation of the profits thereof, or for any appointment or nomination thereto or resignation thereof, or for the consent or consents, or voice or voices of any person or persons to any such appointment, nomination, or resignation, then and in every such case every such person, and also every person who shall wilfully and knowingly aid, abet, or assist such person therein, shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor.”

2. The following will be added as Rule 85 to the Government Servants' Manual :—

“ No servant of Government shall enter into any pecuniary arrangement whatever which shall involve the giving or receiving of a remuneration as an inducement to retiring from the public service.”

3. The rule will be published for information and guidance in the Fort St. George and all District Gazettes.
