From R. M. DANE, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 28th October 1897, No. 4806-Ex.

With reference to the correspondence ending with the letter from this department, No. 841-E., dated 20th February 1896, regarding the question, whether an employé of Government who has been engaged at a fixed salary for a fixed term of years is entitled to exchange compensation allowance, I am directed to invite the attention of the Government of Madras to Rule V (b) of the rules promulgated with the resolution in this department, No. 2422-Ex., dated the 31st May 1897, which contains the final orders of the Secretary of State upon the question.

2. It will be seen that exchange compensation allowance is admissible to persons serving under a contract in which their allowances are definitely fixed; provided they are otherwise eligible under the rules, and that
