From

Commander H. A. Street, R.I.M.,

Presidency Port Officer,

Madras,

TO

The Secretary to Government,

Marine Department,

Чепак.

Sir,

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Government, that at Tuticorin steamers arrive direct from Bombay, being only $3\frac{1}{2}$ to 4 days on the passage, and that as there is no sign of abatement of the Plague at Bombay it would be advisable, I think, that the Quarantine rules enforced at Madras by G.O., Marine, No. 732 of 24th October 1896 should be extended to Tuticorin.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

Ha theet
Commander, R. I. M.

Presidency Port Officer.

Your letter 4 January
suggesting quarantine
at Inticum against Bombay. Does same reason exist against Karachi which is now
infected, and against which quarantine
is being imposed in Madras?
