No. 295, MARINE, 25TH MARCH 1897.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From Commander H. A. STREET, R.I.M., Presidency Port Officer, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Marine Department, dated 16th March 1897, No. 949/88 G.

In reply to memo. No. 137 E., dated 26th February 1897, I have the honour to state that, occasionally, British India Steam Navigation Company's steamers, and the steamers which have brought coal to Negapatam or Tuticorin, as well as a few native craft, proceed to Burma from ports southward of Madras. The coal steamers, as a rule, do not carry passengers.

2. It has been ascertained that within the past three years the following departures have taken place direct for Burma from the ports specified, viz.:—

- From Negapatam 4 steamers and 34 native craft.
- „ Tuticorin, 3 steamers.
- „ Cochin, 51 steamers and 3 native craft.
- „ Calicut, 3 steamers (2 of which were R.I.M. vessels).

ORDER—No. 295, Marine, dated 25th March 1897.

The rules published in the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary of the 26th February 1897, prescribing special precautionary measures to prevent the importation of bubonic plague into Burma by vessels sailing from certain ports of this Presidency, will be extended to the following ports:—

Negapatam,	Cochin,
Tuticorin,	Calicut,

and will be made applicable to vessels of all classes proceeding thence to Burma direct.

The Surgeon-General will at once designate the Medical officers to be appointed Health officers at the ports for the purposes of the rules in question.

The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George and Maritime District Gazettes concerned:—

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Act III of 1897, the Epidemic Diseases Act, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the rules published in the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary of the 26th February 1897, prescribing special precautionary measures to prevent the importation of bubonic plague into Burma by vessels sailing from certain ports of this Presidency, be extended as a temporary measure to the ports of Negapatam, Tuticorin, Cochin, and Calicut; and be applied to vessels of all classes proceeding thence to Burma direct.
