I am directed by the Marquess of Salisbury to state, for the information of the Secretary of State for India, that a telegram has been received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople stating that, owing to the issue by the Turkish authorities of orders that the life boat dues which have hitherto been collected by the lighthouse administration are to be paid in future to the Prefecture of the port of Constantinople—a course which would result in their being applied to other purposes than the maintenance of the service—His Excellency yesterday instructed Her Majesty's Consul at that capital to inform British Shipping that the dues should be paid into Her Majesty's Consulate.

Sir P. Currie adds that similar steps have been taken by the other missions at Constantinople.
