The Government of India has accorded approval to the revised rules, but considers that the Local Chambers of Commerce should be allowed an opportunity of submitting their views to Government before changes in existing arrangements are made.

2. It will be seen from G.O. 351 Marine, dated 12th April 1897, that the Local Government has already sanctioned the enhancement of the port dues of the eastern group up to the maximum rates leviable under the Indian Ports Act, X of 1889.
