SUBJECTS.

- Nalam Padmanabhaiah
SUBJECTS.
1. Read letter from Captain Wicks, reporting that the gap was being closed with stones.
 2. Telegram from Mr. Larminie, reporting that gap was in a dangerous condition, collapse feared, stone ordered.
1. Resolved that the Board telegraph to Mr. Larminie, strongly urging him not to use stones but to keep it closed with sand bags as agreed upon at Meeting held on 27th February, the Board is convinced that serious danger is likely to be incurred if the gap cannot be speedily opened in case of need; in event of bad weather port would be unsafe.
 2. Resolved that in the event of Mr. Larminie's reply being unfavourable the Chief Secretary to Government be addressed by urgent telegram to a similar effect.
 3. Read letter from Messrs. Innes & Co., dated 10th April 1897. Resolved that they be informed the work is being carried out by Government.
