Requesting that his son may be appointed to act for him in the Cochin Pilots Service as junior pilot.

To His Excellency
The Governor
Council
Madras

The humble Petition of Ali bin Hassan junior Pilot in the Port of Cochin, on sick leave, now residing at Valoo Paramboor Alleppey

May it please your Gracious Excellency, That with due deference and profound submission your Excellency's Petitioner begs most respectfully to submit the following grievances to your Excellency's most valuable and benign consideration, humbly craving to be pardoned for the intrusion.

That the Petitioner had been entertained in the British Government as a junior Pilot in the Port of Cochin for a period of 12 years.

That your Excellency's Petitioner had endeavoured his utmost assiduity and vigour to endeavour every possible way to render satisfaction to his superiors.

That your Excellency's Petitioner begs most respectfully to submit that owing to his hard labour and difficulties he was taken ill, his protracted illness had entailed him a heavy expenses for the Medical Treatment &c, in consequence of which Petitioner is reduced to a very low circumstance

That your Excellency's Petitioner had sent several Petitions to the Port Officers at Cochin and Madras to the following dates viz: 5, 9, 15 and 19 September 1896 and the last one dated 23 April 1897 in reply to which your Excellency's Petitioner had received 4 memoranda from the said officers not redressing Petitioner's grievances

That your Excellency's Petitioner begs most respectfully to submit that his son who has passed the necessary Marine Examination at Calcutta and has been 1st Mate in several ships, that the Petitioner's son finding Petitioner's protracted illness and the family difficulties he left the ship and joined Petitioner with a full hope that the Presidency Port officer will permit Petitioner's son to act for Petitioner until such time Petitioner is perfectly well to assume his duties

Petitioner therefore most humbly prays that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to order to appoint his son to act for Petitioner and thereby save Petitioner and his large family from the impending trouble and starvation

That it is a year since Petitioner is confined to the sick bed and undergoing Medical Treatment, but Petitioner regrets to submit that he has not as yet been paid from the Government in the shape of his salary, that your Excellency's Petitioner begs respectfully to submit that he has no other means left behind to support his large family except the salary he was drawing from the Charitable Government.

That your Excellency's Petitioner begs most respectfully to submit that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to redress Petitioner's long pending grievances.

That your Excellency's Petitioner humbly prostrates at your Excellency's feet to pardon him for the intrusion.

That your Excellency's Petitioner has submitted a Petition to your Excellency on the 3rd Instant.

For which act of kindness & charity Petitioner shall as in duty bound
