Plague—Medical Officers.

Recording Local and Municipal proceedings on correspondence from the Government of India sanctioning the employment on plague duty of applicants for appointments in the Uncovenanted Medical Service on a salary of Rs. 350 a month.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

G.O., Mis. No. 1245 M., dated 19th May 1897.

Read—the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department, dated 10th May 1897, No. 444-Medical:—

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the letters to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, noted in the margin, sanctioning the employment on plague duty of applicants for appointments in the Uncovenanted Medical Service on a salary of Rs. 350 a month.

ENCLOSURES.

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.R., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, dated Simla, 9th April 1897, No. 278.

I am directed to state that, in order to meet the great demand for medical officers for plague duty, the Government of India sanction the employment on this duty of applicants for appointments in the Uncovenanted Medical Service on a salary of Rs. 350 a month.

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Director-General, Indian Medical Service, dated Simla, 26th April 1897, No. 372.

I am directed to address you, in continuation of my letter, No. 278 (Medical), dated the 9th instant, on the subject of the employment on plague duty of applicants for appointments in the Uncovenanted Medical Service on a salary of Rs. 350 a month.

2. I am to say that the officers selected may be granted travelling allowance to and from the places to which they are posted at the rates of double second-class fares for journeys by rail and As. 4 a mile for journeys by road.

3. For officers who are employed immediately or shortly after the receipt of these orders, the term of engagement may, subject to their good conduct and efficiency, be for a minimum period of three months, the engagement being terminable after the expiry of the first two months by a month's notice given by either the Government or the officer.
