ORDER—No. 465, Financial, dated 10th June 1897.

Under the instructions conveyed in the first of the orders read again above, books and periodicals which have to be procured from Europe should be obtained through the Financial Department. The rules issued with the second of the orders read again above require that the agency of the Financial Department shall be employed in the case of newspapers and other periodical publications whether published in or out of India.

2. In the case of books published in India, the Government directs that all applications shall be dealt with finally in the department of the Secretariat concerned, as the latter has to decide whether the supply of a book is necessary or not. Books which have to be procured from Europe, and newspapers and periodicals whether published in or out of India, will, as heretofore, be obtained through the Financial Department.
