No. 613, MARINE, 10TH JULY 1897.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From W. S. MEYER, Esq., Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Marine Department, dated Simla, the 30th June 1897, No. 2883 Ex.

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 384 (Marine), dated 28th April 1897, I am directed to say that, in the circumstances explained, the Government of India will not object to the proposed grant to Mr. Carlyon of a deputation allowance of Rs. 60 per mensem for the period, 27th November 1891 to 1st February 1892, during which he was in charge of the dredger "Wenlock," in addition to a shore allowance of Rs. 4 per diem for the time spent ashore in Bombay, and table money at Rs. 3 per diem for the number of days that he took his meals on board.

2. With reference to paragraph 1 (c) of Revenue Department Proceedings, Mis. No. 5056, dated 10th December 1896, a copy of which accompanied your letter quoted above, I am to point out that, as Mr. Swann had apparently not taken charge of the post of Agent for Government Consignments and Personal Assistant to the Presidency Port Officer (on Rs. 300 per mensem) at the time of his deputation to the Laccadives, he was not entitled, under article 98, Civil Service Regulations, to a salary of Rs. 300 per mensem, with deputation allowance calculated thereon for the period of his deputation. Article 98, Civil Service Regulations, covers the pay or salary which an officer would have continued to draw but for his deputation; but not the grant of extra pay (otherwise than by deputation allowance as therein provided) on the ground that he would have acted in a higher appointment had he not been placed on special duty. I am, however, to add that the Government of India do not desire to raise any objection to the effect of the order in question.

Copy forwarded to the Accountant-General, Madras, for information, in continuation of endorsement No. 3242 Ex., dated 5th August 1892.
