Dated Madras,

29th July 1897

With reference to its endorsement No. 285 E. dated 22nd April 1897, the Marine Department is informed that if the quarters occupied by the Deputy Conservator of the Port in the Port Office buildings at Madras are to continue to be occupied free of rent, the improvements proposed in the Presidency Port Officer's letter No. 1391/132 G. dated 14th April 1897 to make them suitable as a permanent residence, cannot be carried out. If the improvements are to be made, rent must be charged. It is requested that the occupant may be asked to state whether he would prefer to keep the quarters as they are - free of rent; or to pay rent as soon as the improvements can be carried out.
