Simla, the 7th September 1897.

The SECRETARY to the GOVERNMENT of MADRAS,
Marine Department.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No.371-E, dated 1st June 1897, forwarding a representation from the Agent for Government Consignments in which he requests that his allowances while acting for the Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras in a privilege leave vacancy may be regulated by the rules of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India regret that they are unable to comply with Mr. Baddeley's request. Privilege leave under the Marine Regulations can only be sanctioned on the understanding that no additional expense is thereby caused to the State, either directly or indirectly, that the applicant's services can be spared, and that satisfactory arrangements for the performance of his duties during his absence can be made. If on any occasion the Deputy Conservator of the Port of Madras cannot make satisfactory and approved arrangements for the performance of his duties during his absence without extra expense being caused to the State, he cannot be allowed to avail himself of privilege leave.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. F. Frulay

Secretary to the Govt. of India.
