PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

From the British Consular Agent, Pondicherry, ^{and Karikal} No. 42, dated 18th January 1897:—

I have the honour to report my arrival this morning in Karikal on inspection duty, and my proposed departure to Pondicherry this night.

2. I duly examined the accounts and inspected the records of this office and found everything correct, and properly kept up.

3. There appears to be considerable laxity among the British shipping in obeying the consular regulations.

4. This appears to be through no fault of the Pro-consul.
