READ—the following paper :—

Telegram from the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Local and Municipal Department, dated Calcutta, 17th February 1897, No. 516 (Sanitary).

Your telegram dated 30th January. Following notification regarding import from infected ports of commodities likely to spread infection issued and will be published in Gazette of India of 20th February: Begins—"In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 (1) of Act 3 of 1897 and in supersession of notification No. 389 (in the Department of Finance and Commerce) S.R., dated the 22nd January 1897, the Governor-General in Council hereby prohibits the bringing of rags, used apparel and bedding, waste paper and used gunny bags from any port with regard to which rules for quarantine against plague have been issued under section 1 of Act 1 of 1870 into any port in British India"—Ends. Government of India consider it will be best that they should continue to issue regulations affecting sea-borne trade and that Local Governments should not issue such regulations under Epidemic Diseases Act. Government of India are asking Ceylon Government to issue similar prohibition.

No. 182, Local and Municipal.

Transferred to the Public Works (Marine) Department.

FORT ST. GEORGE,
18th February 1897.

(Signed) G. S. FORBES,
Secretary to Government.

ORDER—No. 142, Marine, dated 20th February 1897.

The notification of the Government of India will be republished in the Fort St. George and Maritime District Gazettes; and the prohibition as to Local Governments issuing regulations affecting sea-borne trade will be noted for guidance.

2. Collectors of maritime districts will note that the importation of used gunny bags is equally objectionable whether they contain articles of merchandise or are imported as returned empties. The masters of vessels now in port from ports under quarantine should, therefore, be required to transfer into new gunny bags before landing, or to land in bulk all goods on board their vessels contained in used gunny bags.

NOTIFICATION.

The following notification by the Government of India is republished :—

"In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 (1) of Act 3 of 1897 and in supersession of notification No. 389 (in the Department of Finance and Commerce) S.R., dated the 22nd January 1897, the Governor-General in Council hereby prohibits the bringing of rags, used apparel and bedding, waste paper and used gunny bags from any port, with regard to which rules for quarantine against plague have been issued under section 1 of Act 1 of 1870 into any port in British India."
