P.O. Galore 8th Feb 1897.
I also addressed the Governor of Madras in 1896 regarding his Chief Secretary to Government Fort St George in reply dated the 14th Dec under No 100 from the Portland place W. Hill
- ship about the order was passed about 5th.

I had the honor to acknowledge the return of my letter from Lord Hamilton dated the 9th December last, with three other enclosures through your Office and the Madras Recorder on the 6th Inst with its usual notice "That representations from India should be forwarded to Home Government through the local Government." In 1891 about my letter to Lord Hamilton was with reference to my memorial dated 17th June 1895, and which still lies in your Office unforwarded to India Office I addressed his Lordship in his private capacity at Ealing, and I was surprised that the Home Office considered it, and returned it through India Office and the Government of Madras, treating my letter the same as those that are addressed to his Lordship officially, even one of the copies of my memorial were returned through the proper Channel the original being with Government.
It is evident, that the Secretary of State after reading my frequent letters and copies of my appeal thought that I have a right to be heard and appeal, as my case has never been disposed of by the Authorities to whom they were addressed and my case cannot come under the rule as just enough had expired. This goes to prove that I had done nothing wrong, otherwise this proposal would have been made long ago. I beg most humbly that His Excellency the Governor and the Honorable Members in Council will take my petition into their favorable consideration after these long years and grant me that which is just according to Government rules viz - a gratuity for my 8 years loss of service under Government for no fault of mine. I have just closed my 56th year and probably would have had to retire on the 1st of April coming official year and would have been entitled to a pension of Rs 250/- per mensem. I understood that gratuities are allowable to officers when an office is abolished and when the officer is cast adrift and no other appointment offered, and one month's pay granted for every year service and the pension entitled to. I admit my office was not abolished but I was cast adrift without cause only for doing my honest duty. I therefore pray that my case may be dealt with similarly for which I shall always feel grateful. I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient servant.

How, I.F. Price

Dear Sir,
I hope you are getting me as you know all about my case, and just that more than I do. Why I have been made to suffer all these years, it forms all my compensation.
I am certain you never heard anything wrong about me. I am known to several Gentlemen the old hands in Civil Service, and all have a good word for me, even now when I am there, only one who has been against me was Mr. Goertin and had been so since he was the Private Secretary to Lord Napier, even Mr. Harlow was very good to me until Mr. Pirbright joined the office as Secretary of the H.C.B. in August 1886. So may I beseech of you to say a kind word in my behalf. You will never regret it for helping me. I have a wife & children to support four of them girls have boy a little fellow, you can understand my anxiety & old age is drawing on so kindly with a helping hand for which I shall ever feel very grateful. Believe me Yours very faithfully
J. Price
