J. H. Thompson
Chairman,

holding that the Harbour Trust Board is solely responsible for all erosion north of the Harbour and for the protection of the foreshore.

Read minutes by Trustees and note by the Chairman.

The Trustees then proceeded along the revetment to Cassimode, when the above G.O. was discussed, and it was resolved that having personally inspected the revetment the Trustees consider that the work to be done to it should, for the present, be restricted to the expenditure of Rs 64,879 sanctioned in G.O. Marine No. 124 dated 20th June 1898.

To

The Consulting Engineer for Railways.

Madras.

SIR,

May 4

I have the honour to draw your attention to this office letter No. 10453/198 of the 5th March last, and to point out that nothing has been done towards protecting the company's property at Royapuram from the danger which will arise from a further encroachment of the sea.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm S M V S
