READ—also the following paper:—

From E. SEYMOUR HALE, Esq., to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated The Publishing House, Bombay, 3rd November 1898.

I have the honour to inform you that I have been appointed an agent for the sale of the publications of the Government of Bombay upon a commission of 33½ per cent. on the published prices of the books, and to solicit the favour of a similar appointment to sell the publications of your Government also.

The special advantage of my proposal lies in the fact that this house exists chiefly as a wholesale distributing house to booksellers in India, Burma and Ceylon, and through my agency the list of your publications would periodically reach the hands of over 300 such booksellers as well as the public.

I beg to point out that I already represent several of the largest London publishers and the London Publishers' Association.

ORDER—No. 1064, Financial, dated 16th November 1898.

Mr. E. Seymour Hale is appointed agent in Bombay for the sale of the publications of the Madras Government (except those of the Legislative Department) subject to the following conditions:—

(i) He shall be allowed a discount of 33½ per cent. on the marked price of each book sold by him.

(ii) Monthly lists of new publications shall be supplied to him by the Superintendent, Government Press, gratuitously as they are printed, selections from which shall be printed by him in his monthly circulars, free of all cost to the State. On receipt of these lists, Mr. Seymour Hale shall, as early as possible, intimate to the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, what publications and the number of copies of each he is willing to store for sale.

(iii) Annual accounts of sales shall be rendered to the Superintendent of the Government Press, Madras, and to the Accountant-General, Madras, in January of each year, on forms to be supplied by the former officer for the purpose.

(iv) All payments on account of the sales of the preceding year shall be made to the Accountant-General, Madras, before the 1st March following.
