Order. No. 110 Muni & 17. 1. 1898

The Government does not consider it necessary to establish plague inspection stations at Ellore and Rajahmundry, as adequate arrangements have already been made at Kondapalli for the inspection of the Railway passengers from the Hyderabad side and as the precautionary measures referred to in para.2 of the Collector's second letter read above, appear to be sufficient, for the present, in the case of the people coming into the District by road.

FOR ORDERS.

In the first of the letters read above, the Collector of Godavari requested that the Ellore, Godavari South, Godavari North, Rajahmundry town, Samalkota junction, Cocanada town and Cocanada Port Railway stations may be appointed inspection stations under No. 14 of the Mufassal Regulations under the Epidemic Diseases ^{Act}. He was thereupon requested to state fully his reasons for proposing to open so many inspection stations, when adequate arrangements had already been made by Government for the inspection of railway passengers at Kondapalli, and the second letter read above contains his reply. The Collector states that the only reason for his proposing to provide for inspection at the stations mentioned was that cases which escape inspection at one station may be duly inspected at one or other of the remaining stations. On reconsideration, however, he says he is inclined to omit all but Ellore and Rajahmundry Town stations, which are the first points on the East Coast Railway to which people from the Nizam's dominions which adjoin the district on the West may resort. The Collector notes at the same time that the Municipal Councils of Ellore, Rajahmundry and Cocanada have made arrangements for the inspection of Railway passengers at the three stations mentioned above, and that the Taluk Board of Cocanada has made similar arrangements at the Samalkota station as a measure of precaution.

2. As adequate arrangements have already been made at Kondapalli for the inspection of Railway passengers from the Hyderabad side, there appears to be no necessity to open inspection stations at Ellore and Rajahmundry, which are only 47 and 103 miles, respectively, from Kondapalli. As regards the people coming into the District by road from the Nizam's Dominions, the precautionary measures reported to have been already taken by the local bodies, above referred to, seem to be enough for the present. The accompanying draft order is therefore submitted for approval:-
