1. As regards the delegation of the powers of the Secretary, the Council has ^{apparently} ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~yet~~ ^{yet} ~~decided~~ ^{decided} per L. C. No 1605 M. 17 July 1897 in which the Council was asked to report what powers the Council propose to delegate in addition to those specified in S 42. In fact its Council & the delegation of the powers conferred by its resolution is not necessary, as such powers ~~shall~~ ^{may} be delegated by the Chairman (subject to the approval of Government) without any reference to the Council. As regards the "other powers" the delegated, the Council might with advantage recommend its resolution. Now that they offer a handsome salary to the new Secretary, they might well decide what further powers should be delegated, & select a good man competent to discharge such duties. I therefore recommend that the substance of a Secretary on the proposed salary be at once approved, & that the Council be requested to consider the question of delegation of powers. Resolved.

20 July 1898. Collected

~~maximum~~ ~~assessing~~ rising to a maximum of Rs 200 per annum.

Section 42 of the Municipal Act as regards the servants employed in the Municipal Office and in the collection of the Municipal revenues. What other powers may be delegated will be determined by the Council after the Secretary is selected and appointed.

The question of raising lands will be considered at the ensuing budget making.
