SUBJECT.

Note

Sec. 54 of the Transfer of Property Act - 11 of 1882 says that in the case of tangible immovable property of a value less than one hundred rupees the sale may be made either by a registered instrument or by delivery of property. The latter alternative has been adopted in these cases, although the former would have been much better, but it seems unnecessary to insist on Registered instruments being taken by the Municipal Council.

FURTHER PAPERS.

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

I don't think there is anything to be feared in this matter, as the Municipal Council is in possession of the lands and has got the receipts executed by the vendors which can be used as evidence against them if necessary, in the same way as deeds of sale can be.

MUNICIPAL COUNCILLORS' OFFICE,

Kurnool, 2nd June 1898.

From

THE CHAIRMAN,

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL,

Kurnool.

To

The Secretary to Government
Local and Municipal Department
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 970

In. His: dated 23rd May 1898, I have the honour to submit that the Copy of G.O. No. 1468 L. dated 18th June 1891 supplied to this office had been mislaid and was not brought to notice at the time the Sites were acquired. The practice that obtained before was therefore followed by me in ignorance of the existence of the G.O. in question. Strict attention will be paid to the same when acquiring lands in future.

2. I have further the honour to submit that as the value of the sites acquired ^{was} were less than 100 Rs as will appear from the list submitted herewith, no conveyances were taken under the provisions of Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act IV of 1882 as immediate possession of the sites was taken. The receipts executed by the parties concerned in proof of having received the amounts settled, however, set forth in detail all the necessary particulars to evidence the sale.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Chairman
