Sir,

At the instance of the Dewan of Cochin
I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to obtain for the use of the Master attendant at Harrakal three charts of Harrakal anchorage. The Director of Indian Marine is unable to supply them as, it appears, they can be had of only Messrs. Potter & Co Admiralty Agents, London.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

Asstt. Resident for Ag. Resident.

255 C. No 162

It is suggested that this application be referred to the Presidency Port office for remarks. There may be political reasons of which this office is unaware for withholding charts of anchorages in certain cases. It would appear that this chart can only be obtained from the Admiralty.
