Government of Bombay.

Revenue Department,

Sir,

I am directed to invite attention to my letter No. 968 Marine dated 30th --- November 1897 and ^{to} ~~of~~ your reply No. 253 dated 11th January 1898, on the subject of noting on the manifests or port clearances of vessels ~~arriving~~ ^{departing} from infected areas, full details as to the number of the crew and passengers, and to state -- that it has been brought to notice that the steamers of Messrs. Shepherd & Co. still continue to arrive from Bombay -- without this information. A strict medical examination of arrivals by these -- vessels thus becomes ~~difficult if not~~ impossible.
