To,

Sir,

It appears that native vessels conveying salt from Bombay take port clearance about Karaiya days before they actually sail and that no crew lists are kept by the Commanders in charge of such vessels: so that when they arrive in the Travancore ports no authentic information is available as to the date of departure from Bombay or as to Casualties if any that might have occurred on board in the course of the voyage. As information on these points is absolutely necessary for the strict enforcement of quarantine in the ports, I have the honor to request you will be so good as to move the authorities Concerned in view to compel the Commanders of such vessels to keep properly attested crew lists giving exact dates of departure from from Bombay.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit herewith copy of a letter No. 1036/V. S 163 dated 3rd Instant. from the Dewan of Travancore complaining against the procedure adopted by the commanders of certain native vessels conveying salt from Bombay to Travancore in taking Port clearance at Karaiya, days before they actually sail, and in not keeping any crew lists, so that when the vessels arrive in the Travancore ports no authentic information is available as to the date of departure from Bombay, etc to casualties, if any, that might have occurred on board in the course of the voyage. I beg therefore that Government will be pleased to arrange for the proper procedure being adopted in view to the strict enforcement of quarantine in the Travancore ports.
