Presidency Port Office,

Madras, 17th March 1897.

Heading

From

Commander H.A. Street, R.I.M.,

Presidency Port Officer,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

CHEPAK.

Sir,

In G.O. Marine No. 173, dated 26th February 1897, an expenditure of Rupees (57-8-0) fifty seven and annas eight per mensem was sanctioned in connection with plague precautions at the port of Cochin. The Accountant General has objected to expenditure incurred on this account since September last on the ground that the sanction accorded in the above G.O. is only temporary and should be for a definite period. As the plague restrictions will continue so long as plague exists, it is impossible to fix any definite period in this case and I therefore request that the sanction above referred to may be held to apply ^{during} ~~till~~ such time as the plague regulations remain in force.

be

H.S.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

A. D. Barclay.
for Presidency Port Officer.
