GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 599, Public, dated 27th April 1898.

It has come to the notice of Government that at a meeting held in January last under the auspices of the Central Muhammadan Association to protest against the selection made of a Muhammadan gentleman to serve as an Additional Member of the Legislative Council _____ and _____ were among those present. After considering the explanations submitted, the Government considers that the conduct of these two public servants in taking part in such a meeting is deserving of censure. Similar breaches of an elementary rule of discipline, in the future, will be severely dealt with.
