ЧЕРАК.

Sir,

In consequence of certain recent changes in the Light house Establishment, I found it necessary to place the Lighthouse Inspector, East Coast Division, in temporary charge of Pulicat Lighthouse, and he was detained there 36 days. As the Lighthouse Inspector States that he was placed to some additional expense, while employed at Pulicat, in consequence of his having to maintain his family at Madras, and to keep a cook at Pulicat, he asks whether he cannot be allowed a deputation allowance of Rs 1-8. " per diem, this sum being the amount he would have been entitled to, during halts, had he been on duty.

2. Under Article 98 of the Civil Service Regulations, Deputation Allowance may be allowed only when an Officer is deputed on special duty, that is, when he is detached on special temporary duty for the performance of which there is no permanently or temporarily sanctioned appointment. The allowance claimed in the present instance is therefore inadmissible as the Light House Inspector was merely transferred, as a temporary measure to the sanctioned appointment at Pulicat.

MEMORANDUM.

Current No. 776.

Optacamund
Dated Madras, 22nd June 1898.

Copy of the Accountant-General's endorsement No. 2199 dated 11th June 1898 is forwarded to the Presidency Port Officer with reference to his letter No. 1271/192 G dated 27th May 1898, and with a request that he will be so good as to report whether the Inspector was placed in charge of the Pulicat Lighthouse in addition to his own duties. If so, his case would seem to fall under Articles 176 and 177 C.S.R. and he could, with the sanction of Government, be given --- increased pay under Art. 184 Note 1.
