GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 9th June 1898, No. 6, Revenue.

I forward, for the information of your Excellency's Government, two copies of Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated 19th May 1898, applying section 238 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" (Deserters from foreign ships) in the case of Japan.

ORDER—No. 573, Marine, dated 4th July 1898.

Communicated to the Presidency Port Officer and the Judicial Department in continuation of G.O., No. 239, Marine, dated 31st March 1898.

2. The order will be published in the Fort St. George and Maritime District Gazettes. The provisional order of the 3rd February 1898 has already been brought into effect in this Presidency, and has, with an extract of section 238 of the English Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, been published in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 26th April 1898, Part I, page 341.

NOTIFICATION.

The following order of Her Majesty in Council is published for information and guidance in continuation of that published in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 26th April 1898, Part I, page 341:—

ORDER of Her Majesty in Council at the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of May 1898.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 238 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is provided that, where it appears to Her Majesty that due facilities are, or will be, given by the Government of any foreign country for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant-ships in that country, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that that section shall apply in the case of such foreign country, subject to any limitations, conditions and qualifications contained in the order:

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty that due facilities are given by the Government of Japan for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant-ships in that country:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the 3rd day of February 1898, to pass a provisional order applying section 238 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," in the case of Japan:

And whereas the provisions of section 1 of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the herein-before recited sub-section (1) of section 238 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the said section 238 of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," shall apply in the case of Japan.

And the Secretary of State for the Home Department, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Secretary of State for India in Council, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
